Ms. Dukes,

ORS believes the presentation of its four witnesses and their summaries could be completed in half an hour, but it is hard to estimate how long any questioning of those witnesses may take.

ORS does not intend to request a transcript.

Thank you!

Jenny

Jerisha—

The Company is hopeful that the hearing will be able to start and finish tomorrow.

The Company has brief summaries for each witness and expects that it would take approximately 5-10 minutes per witness for the Company to enter the testimony and exhibits into the record and have the witness read his or her summary. The Company cannot estimate how long cross examination by other parties or questioning by the Commission may take.

At this time, the Company does not anticipate requiring a transcript. However, that could change depending on what transpires at the hearing.

Dear Counsel:

In preparation for tomorrow's hearing, please provide your party's anticipated timeframe to present your case? Even more generally, does any party anticipate that this hearing will carry over into Friday?

Also, for planning purposes, please advise if your party will require a transcript for this hearing.

Thank you all for your cooperation and attention to these matters.
